

I oppose allowing further consolidation of broadcast companies. It is my strong belief that having a multi-faceted, and diversly owned and operated broadcast media base is important for our freedom of media exposure and content.